

Please do not restrict satellite radio from airing local weather and traffic. It is nice to have the freedom of choice in radio. I am paying for the service and have found nothing any different than satellite television.